TASTING NOTES

Colour:	Intense garnet.
Aroma:	Essence of menthol notes mixed with blackcurrant fruit and a range of wild red forest fruit aromas.
Taste:	Generous and seductive palate with a touch of spices mixed with redcurrant and a hint of liquorice. The mouth is smooth and creamy all around, has an expansive finish and displays well integrated soft tannins.
Food:	Pairs well with grilled pork, braised short ribs, and beef stews.

AWARDS & ACCOLADES

2018 ~ 90 Points. "The serious 2018 Caminos del Bonhomme Cabernet Sauvignon was produced by Rafael Cambra in his winery in Valencia. It's ripe without excess, avoiding the green notes the variety can provide but keeping the herbal and spicy profile intermixed with notions of red fruit, quite attractive and fresh. It has the textbook, fine-grained varietal tannins and supple flavors. It matured in 500-liter French oak barrels for 18 months." - Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate, Sept/2020

2018 ~ "A rather straightforward cabernet with currant, berry and some chocolate character. Medium body, light tannins and an easy finish. Drink now." - James Suckling, Oct/2020

OTHER INFO

The single parcel of Cabernet Sauvignon grows on the radiant slopes of the Sierra de l'Ombría where the sun shines 300 days a year. The 35 years old Cabernet Sauvignon thrives with the help of the Mediterranean cool wind swaying across the valley of Fontaneres which regulates the fresh summer nights. Over the years the French varietal has slowly adapted its noble character with our Valencia terroir and, as a result, earned its unique personality.

This unique label was inspired by winemaker Nathalie Bonhomme's trip to Tofino on Vancouver Island, B.C.
