TASTING NOTES

Colour: Very deep garnet-red colour almost black.

Aroma: The nose is full with aromas of very ripe black fruit.

Taste: It is gourmand with liquorice aromas and a spicy finish.

Food: A variety of meats, either grilled, roast, braised or stewed. Also pairs nicely with both hard and soft cheeses.

AWARDS & ACCOLADES

2023 ~ "Juicy, expressive dark-fruited wine, with firm tannins and a red cherry yoghurt finish." - Decanter World Wine Awards 2024

OTHER INFO

The winery takes his name from a young winemaker native from Rhone Valley who has a true passion for Southern Rhone wine, food and "art de vivre". After 7 years working with Michel Chapoutier at this world acclaimed winery, he was proposed the exciting adventure of scouting for a new vineyard in Chateauneuf du Pape to create his own wines.

In 2008: Pierre Henri found a fantastic terroir on the mythical "Pignan" district in Chateauneuf du Pape and they purchased 4 hectares of a single vineyard. This was the first stone of a range of wines truly representative of the southern Rhone and more especially Grenache expression.
