TASTING NOTES

Colour: Pale golden straw in colour, with hints of green.

Aroma: Melon, pear, peach, tropical fruit, and subtle herbaceous notes on the nose.

Taste: Fresh and crisp, fruit aromas carry through to the palate and combine with a pleasing minerality and refreshing, balanced acidity.

Food: This wine is the ideal match to delicate fish and seafood dishes.

AWARDS & ACCOLADES

2021 ~ 90 Points. "Bright and welcoming, with lots of quince, guava and nectarine on the nose. Fresh and medium-bodied with vibrant acidity and creamy lemon in the middle. A little phenolic. A good summer drink with immediate appeal. Vegan. Drink now." - James Suckling, May/2022

OTHER INFO

Rias Baixas boasts a number of high-quality grapes; chief among them is Albarino, occupying more than 90% of the DO's vineyard area. The soils are largely granite, with some chalk and clay. The earth here offers lots of minerals but few nutrients, making it perfect for wine-growing. Old vineyards planted in Pergola system, traditional from this area, produce the grapes of Albarino with a high level of acidity given the proximity with the Atlantic ocean and the high level of rains, this wine will continue to develop complexity with the bottle age. Vegan.
