Taste: Medium-bodied with dark fruit and juicy acidity. Creamy tannins with a long finish.

Food: This wine pairs beautifully with tomato-based dishes such as pasta or pizza, antipasti or roasted fowl.

AWARDS & ACCOLADES

2024 ~ "Declared as 100% Sangiovese, in contrast to the 2023 edition that included small amounts of Merlot and Cabernet Franc, the Cortonesi 2024 Lèonus is fresh and primary in style. Bright, summer-tinged cherry defines the bouquet... The difficult conditions of the 2024 vintage favored lighter extraction and a straightforward, early-drinking profile." - Monica Larner - Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, Jan/2026

OTHER INFO

This wine comes from the La Manella farm in Montalcino, where the Cortonesi family is renowned for their production of Brunello di Montalcino. Lèonus is made from declassified Brunello grapes, making it an excellent value wine that is often referred to as a baby Brunello. A fresh and easy-drinking expression of Sangiovese, focused on freshness and vivacity, to pair with your home-cooked pasta meals. 100% Sangiovese aged in oak barrel for six months, and in bottle for three months.
