TASTING NOTES

Colour:	Deep red with violet hues.
Aroma:	Fruit filled aromas lift out of the glass, framed by notes of plums and chocolate.
Taste:	Soft and ripe tannins. Quite harmonious on the finish.
Food:	Ideal partner for grilled meats and/or mature cheeses.

AWARDS & ACCOLADES

2023 ~ 91 Points. - Tim Atkin, Feb/2024

OTHER INFO

The grapes come from the Valles Calchaquies at 1700 meters above sea level, in the Province of Salta, in Northwest Argentina. The region is known for being among the highest vineyards in the world where it predominates a dry climate, with rainfall not exceeding 150 mm per year, and a significant dual temperature variation. Rocky and sandy soil.
