AWARDS & ACCOLADES

2023 ~ 94 Points. "The 2023 Verduno Pelaverga is a lovely vintage that shows off the snappy, spicy notes of Pelaverga, with white pepper, fresh pomegranate, strawberry, fresh tarragon, and rocky earth. Medium-framed and light on its feet, without ever feeling austere, it has a silky texture and a bit of chalky saltiness on the finish. I enjoy this vintage quite a bit and fans of these wines should not miss this one." - Audrey Frick - Jeb Dunnuck, May/2025

2023 ~ 92 Points. "No one does Pelaverga better than Comm. G.B. Burlotto, an estate with a long history with this native Piedmont grape. Indeed, it was credited with bringing it back from extinction. The 2023 Verduno Pelaverga has all sorts of fun and contrasting quirks with redcurrant, white pepper, wasabi, peppermint and Christmas spice. The electric jolt you get with Pelaverga is not as strong as it could be in the cooler vintages, but this expression from the hot 2023 growing season shows great energy regardless." - Monica Larner - Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, Jan/2025

2023 ~ "The 2023 Pelaverga Verduno is a very pretty, aromatic red. Kirsch, orange peel, mint, cinnamon, white pepper are all nicely lifted. Silky tannins wrap it together in style, conferring elegance and finesse. This is beautifully done." - Antonio Galloni's Vinous, Jan/2025

OTHER INFO

Located in the commune of Verduno in the Barolo DOCG, Burlotto was established by Giovan Battista Burlotto, il Commendatore, in the mid-18th century, during which time it earned the distinguished titles of 'Supplier to the Savoy Royal Household' and 'The Only Supplier to the Duke of Abruzzi's Artic Expedition to the North Pole.' Burlotto distinguished himself by introducing the practice of selling bottled wine bearing his estate's name (in the manner of French chateaux) at a time when it was customary practice to sell wine in cask.

The G.B. Burlotto Winery has remained a family-run business where all aspects of winery operations are taken care of by owner, Marina Burlotto (il Commendatore's great-niece), her husband, Giuseppe Alessandria and their son, Fabio.
